

Name: _____

Date: _____

Irony Practice

Choose whether the example is Verbal, Dramatic or Situational irony.

1. A fire station that burns down.
2. In Frozen, the audience is aware that Elsa has powers that are hard to control. Her sister Anna does not know about these powers and thinks of Elsa as standoffish and cold.
3. Someone breaks into a police station.
4. Entering a friend's messy room and saying "nice place you have here."
5. In the TV show Smallville, Clark Kent comments that in the future he does not want to put on a suit and fly around but the audience knows he will.
6. Stating during a thunderstorm, "beautiful weather we're having."
7. In the movie Toy Story, Buzz Lightyear thinks he is a real space ranger but the other toys and the audience knows that he is just a toy.
8. Someone telling the loser of a race "You should try out for the Olympics!"
9. Winner of a spelling bee failing a spelling test.
10. In Star Wars, Luke does not know Darth Vader is his father until Episode V, but the audience knows sooner.