

Peer Editing

Pair off with another student and exchange stories. Or ask someone in your family to read your story and answer the questions.

Questions for the Reader	Advice to the Writer
Does the first paragraph inspire you to read the story?
Are the characters believable?
Is there information that didn't add to the story or was just "extra"?
Does the story have an interesting climax?
Did the writer build toward the climax or does it "just happen"?
Is the ending interesting/ unexpected?
Was there anything confusing about the story? What needs to be added or cleared up?	