Vocabulary Matching!

Draw a line from the vocab word to the correct definition for your chosen word.

influenza
- Staying as far apart as possible from other people so you don't spread germs.

bacteria
- A sickness or illness.

outbreak
- A medical word that means how diseases spread.

disease
- A shot of medicine that can keep you from getting sick.

cocoon
- A sudden start of something like a disease.

snot
- Nasal mucus.

social distancing
- Tiredness.

vaccine
- A type of germ that can make you sick. Viruses are another type.

fatigue
- Staying home so you are safe and protected.

epidemiology
- A contagious viral infection that can cause you to have a fever, body aches, congestion and other symptoms.
Vocabulary Matching!

Draw a line from the vocab word to the correct definition for your chosen word.

Shelter in Place
A covering of cloth to cover your nose and mouth and help you to keep from getting sick.

Epidemiologist
When germs fly through the air from one person to another.

Coronavirus
When a disease infects a large number of people in one area.

Mask
When a disease infects a large number of people around the world.

Virus
Staying by yourself so you don’t receive or pass on diseases to others.

droplet transmission
When you have to stay at home, work, school until someone in charge tells you it’s safe to go out.

Pandemic
These are little particles that can cause you to get sick. You can find these on many surfaces.

Quarantine
A new type of virus that began making people sick in 2019. It’s also called Covid-19.

Germs
A scientist who studies how human diseases spread.

Epidemic
A type of germ that can make you sick. Bacteria are another type.