

Walk a Mile in Another's Shoes

Understanding what another person may be feeling or experience is an important way to have empathy. In the story, we know things based on Annemarie's point of view. Think about Ellen and Peter. What kinds of things would they be thinking and feeling during this dangerous part of the plan for Ellen's escape.

1. Write from Ellen's point of view.

- What is she thinking when she realizes her parents have arrived to Uncle Henrik's house?
- What is she thinking as she gets ready to travel to a new country?
- What is she feeling?
- What does she want to say to Annemarie?

2. Imagine you are Peter. Why are you risking your life to save people?
Explain clearly so others will understand.
