

Name:

Sadako and the Thousand Paper Cranes

By Eleanor Coerr

Chapter Two Activity

Similes and Metaphors

A simile shows a comparison of two things that are alike by using the words “like” or “as”.

(Example: Michael is like a puppy.)

A metaphor shows two things are alike by saying the first thing is the second thing.

(Example: Katharine is the black sheep.)

-----
Write a simile to describe your partner:

---

---

Write a metaphor to describe your partner:

---

---

-----
Using at least two different characters from Sadako and the Thousand Paper Cranes, write both a simile and a metaphor to describe each character.

Character #1:

Simile:

---

---

Metaphor:

---

---

Character #2:

Simile:

---

---

Metaphor:

---

---